

Dear Bo,

These are very sad news. Professor Wang was highly respected by the international astronomical community, in particular in the realm of the International Astronomical Union. He has been instrumental in fostering the development of large astronomical telescopes in the radio and optical ranges in China, and promoting international cooperation. He will be remembered by the SKA community.

Please transmit my condolences to his family.

Best regards

Catherine

Catherine Cesarsky

Haut Conseiller Scientifique